

Seminar series 2020/21

The Friends of the Argyll Papers are delighted to introduce a series of online seminars revealing research undertaken in the archive, to take place on Zoom.

All seminars are scheduled for a Friday, at various start times to allow Friends around the world to participate.

Fri 20 November	15:00 GMT	Professor Allan Macinnes The Analysis of the Craignish Baillie Court Book, 1720-1729
Fri 11 December	11:00 GMT	Dr Robert Irving Medieval Grave Slab Rubbings, a Cyclic Journey of Serendipity from Nanotechnology to CoVID
Fri 15 January	15:00 GMT	Diarmid Campbell Overview of An Argyll family from the Middle Ages to the 18th century
Fri 19 February	19:30 GMT	Nathan Bossoh Victorian ornithology and the domestic laboratory: Argyll's hope for aerial navigation
Fri 19 March	11:00 GMT	Chris Dracup Deciphering John Dewar's Shorthand
Fri 16 April	15:00 GMT	Duncan Beaton Unravelling the Campbells of Glendaruel
Fri 14 May	19:30 GMT	Danielle Fatzinger Manuscript Production in Kintyre c. 1690-1698: Eoghan MacGilleoin and his Clan Campbell Patrons
Fri 18 Jun	19:30 GMT	Dr Micky Gibbard The New Town of Inveraray: a window into the planned villages of Scotland

Seminars are free for members of the Friends. Non-members are welcome to attend in return for a donation of £5 per seminar. Book your place and receive joining instructions by emailing:

friendsoftheargyllpapers@gmail.com